

Ravenshall

all different | all equal | all important

12 July 2024

Dear families,

This year we are trialling children's annual reports in a different format. I hope we have captured your child's progress and achievements in the video class teachers will be sending out this week. The video report is aimed at giving you greater insight into their school year and is hopefully something you can cherish and share more easily with friends and family.

I would welcome any feedback on the new format, good or bad, to ensure we can continue to give an accurate reflection of your child's successes each year. Please feel free to contact the school office if you have any comments to make.

Yours sincerely,

Rik Robinson
